

FREE ENERGY EFFICIENCY AUDIT

The City of Hogansville in cooperation with Electric Cities of Georgia is offering free Energy Efficiency Audits. Your free evaluation of your home or business will provide energy efficiency tips specific for your location. This program ensures that you will receive an unbiased review of occupancy habits, equipment, and structure issues so you can make informed decisions as to where your conservation efforts will reap the highest returns. Free audits are available to City of Hogansville utility customers.

WHAT HAPPENS DURING AN AUDIT?

Our Energy Efficiency Audit program is the first line of defense to saving resources and money. Many of the tips our specialist recommends are easy, low cost, do-it-yourself projects. Onsite visits last about an hour. Included with the visit:

- A review of your utility consumption history
- An interior and exterior onsite evaluation
- Review of weatherization materials that will work best for your needs
- Lifestyle strategies to lower your usage
- Equipment energy use assessment and pay back periods for replacements
- Information on Community Action for Improvement, Inc. weatherization and other programs

WHY SIGN UP?

If you have asked yourself any of these questions but didn't know the answer, you need an Energy Audit:

- Are your windows air-tight? How do you seal them up? Should you replace them?
- Do you have adequate insulation?
- Do you have hidden water leaks?
- How much do your appliances cost to run?
- Is it cost effective to replace your heating and cooling system?
- Why does the temperature vary so much from room to room?
- Is buying a low flow shower head going to save me that much money?
- Why are my utility bills so high?
