

Isaiah H. Lofton Park

Pavers Project

In 1897 a black schoolteacher, Isaiah H Lofton was appointed as postmaster of Hogansville. On September 15, 1897, Postmaster Lofton, was the victim of an attempted assassination by unknown assailants after leaving the city's post office located in an area known as "Cross Town" in the black business district.

In September of 2019 the Georgia Historical Society in conjunction with the City of Hogansville dedicated a new Georgia Civil Rights marker, trail and park in recognition of the attempted assassination of Postmaster Lofton.

The City of Hogansville would like to invite you to be a part of this historical monument to justice and perseverance. The City of Hogansville will be taking application for engraved paver bricks to be a lasting memorial to the historic "Cross Town", the story of Postmaster Isaiah H Lofton, and the many recognized and unsung heroes from our community.

Each $ 30.00 brick 4x8 includes up to three lines of engraving, with up to 20 characters per line, including spaces and punctuation.

Please submit this form with a $30.00 payment. Checks should be made payable to the City of Hogansville and mailed to:

City of Hogansville
Attn: Isaiah H Lofton Park
111 High Street
Hogansville, GA. 30230

Each application will be reviewed and approved by the Lofton Park Pavers Committee. The committee reserves the rights to decline any application and return all application funds that are submitted.

No application will be approved that:

- Expound profanity.
- Encourages violence.
- Promotes ideas or named individuals who are proponents of racism, sexism, antisemitism, etc....

This is an opportunity to pay lasting tribute to the spirit of our city.
